

SHIAH BELIEFS

The following is a list of the essential and fundamental beliefs of the Shiah religion presented for easy comprehension by those who are cast into confusion by the hidden Shiahs and Shiah supporters in our midst.

1) THE DIVINITY OF SHIAH IMAAMS

Primarily, mainstream Shi'ism subscribes to twelve Imaams, the first being Hadhrat Ali (Radhiyallāhu anhu). All of these Imaams are god-incarnate, that is, they are invested with godhood, and they are sinless and surpass the status of even the Ambiya (Alyhimus salaam). All attributes of Nubuwwat (Prophethood) are predicated for the Imaams

2) REVELATION

The Angel, Jibraeel (Alyhis salaam) brings Wahi (Revelation) from Allah Ta'ala to the Imaams, Jibraeel's initial error was to deliver the Wahi to Muhammad (Sallallah Alayhi Wasallam). He was supposed to deliver the Revelation to Hadhrat Ali (Radhiyallah anhu).

3) THE QUR'AAN- A FABRICATION

The Qur'aan which the Muslim Ummah has today and had since the past fourteen centuries, is a forgery fabricated by the Sahaabah. The true Qur'aan is hidden in a cave where Imaam Mahdi (Alayhis Salaam) is in concealment, He went into hiding at about the age of 7 or 8 years with the "true" Qur'aan. He will emerge from the cave with the Qur'aan at the approach of Qiyaamah.

4) BAD'A - ALLAH ERRS

Allah Ta'ala too makes mistakes. One such glaring mistake was his expression of pleasure for the Sahaabah.

5) THE SHAABAH

Almost 100% of the Sahaabah had reneged from Islam, becoming murtads, after the demise of Rasulullah (Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam)

6) CURSES

Invocation of curses is an act of great merit. Especially curses on the Sahaabah.

7) TAQIYAH

Taqiyah or holy hypocrisy is the belief which encourages Shiahs to conceal their true beliefs from Muslims. Practising Taqiyah is an act of worship of extraordinary merit.

CONCLUSION

All these beliefs are explicitly stated in the books of the Shiah religion. Every Muslim can understand that those who subscribe to these beliefs can never be Muslims.
