TARIQ JAMIL IN THE TENTACLES OF SHAITAANI DECEPTION

A Brother writes:

“Assalamualaykum

On a recent tour of the UK Maulana Tariq Jamil posed for a photo with Amir Khan, a boxer, who participates in a Haraam music-promoting sport, and whose satr is exposed due to his profession. This nakedness would particularly be the case at weigh-ins before bouts where, I believe boxers would strip down to just their underpants.

All this is in the name of winning the hearts of dunya celebrities so that they come on to Deen & start doing the work of Dawat & Tabligh.

This irks my conscience as I do not countenance that Nabi Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam would condone the sins of a man by posing with him in a photograph in order to win his heart.

Furthermore, Maulana Tariq Jamil allows himself to be videoed in a Masjid during his talks. Women attend at night, in many cases without their Mahrams. It is naive to think that Maulana doesn't know this happens in a country like UK.

Is there any justification whatsoever in Shariah for Maulana Tariq Jamil's actions?" (End of letter)

Tariq Jamil Has lost the path of the Deen. He has become a deviate. Shaitaan has ensnared this person in his trap of deception. In past issues of The Majlis we did mention his deviation. It is not permissible to even listen to the talks of this deviate who is sprawling at the feet of shaitaan. He is enamoured and over-awed by fussaag and fujjaar so-called copro-celebrities. His brains have become vermiculated hence he bootlicks just any faasiq, faajir whose company he craves.
